

Ansible

At ISW we use Ansible for the configuration of our services. It provides a simple way to install multiple systems at once, meaning it is easy to scale. But not only that, you can also read the configuration with minimal knowledge and still understand what happens during the running of it.

Right now some of the things that are configured via Ansible are:

- Docker Cluster
- VyOS Routers